FINDING

There being a finding/verdict of GUILTY, defendant has been convicted as charged of the offense(s) of:
Criminal Infringement of a Copyright 17 pursuant to U.S.C. § 506(a)(1)(B), 18 U.S.C. § 2319(c)(3) and 18 U.S.C. § 2319(a)(c)(1) as charged in Count 1 of the First Superseding Information

JUDGMENT AND PROB/
COMM ORDER

The Court asked whether there was any reason why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Trevon Maurice Franklin, is hereby committed on the single-count First Superseding Information to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of TWENTY-FOUR (24) DAYS¹.

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be placed on supervised release for a term of one (1) year under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the United States Probation Office and General Order 05-02, with the exception of Standard Conditions 5, 6, and 14 of that order.
2. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall notify specific persons and organizations of specific risks and shall permit the Probation Officer to confirm the defendant's compliance with such requirement and to make such notifications.
3. During the period of community supervision, the defendant shall pay the special assessment in accordance with this judgment's orders pertaining to such payment.
4. The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on supervised release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, not to exceed eight tests per month, as directed by the Probation Officer.
5. The defendant shall participate in an outpatient substance abuse treatment and counseling program that includes urinalysis, breath and/or sweat patch testing, as directed by the Probation Officer. The defendant shall abstain from using alcohol and illicit drugs, and from abusing prescription medications during the period of supervision.
6. As directed by the Probation Officer, the defendant shall pay all or part of the costs of the Court-ordered treatment to the aftercare contractors during the period of community supervision. The defendant shall provide payment and proof of payment as directed by the Probation Officer. If the defendant has no ability to pay, no payment shall be required.

¹ The Defendant surrendered to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons on September 29, 2018. Accordingly, the Bureau of Prisons shall calculate the 24 days beginning on September 29, 2018 so that the Defendant receives a credit of seven days of the 24-day sentence.

7. When not employed or excused by the Probation Officer for schooling, training, or other acceptable reasons, the defendant shall perform 20 hours of community service per week as directed by the Probation Office.
8. The defendant shall possess and use only those Digital Devices and Internet Accounts that have been disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Officer upon commencement of supervision. Any changes or additions to Digital Devices or Internet Accounts are to be disclosed to, and approved by, the Probation Officer prior to the first use of same. Disclosure shall include both user names and passwords for all Digital Devices and Internet Accounts. Digital Devices include, but are not limited to, personal computers, tablet computers such as iPads, mobile/cellular telephones, personal data assistants, digital storage media, devices or media which provide access to electronic games, devices that can access or can be modified to access the Internet, as well as any of their peripheral equipment. Internet Accounts include, but are not limited to, email accounts, social media accounts, electronic bulletin boards, or other accounts on the Internet.
9. After the Probation Officer has given defendant approval to use a particular Digital Device or Internet Account, defendant need not notify the Probation Officer about subsequent use of that particular Digital or Internet Account. Defendant shall, however, notify the Probation Officer of any additions to, removals from, or other modifications of the hardware or software on any Digital Device or Internet Account that defendant causes to occur, within one week of that addition, removal or modification. The defendant shall not hide or encrypt files or data without specific approval from the Probation Officer.
10. The defendant shall provide the Probation Officer with all billing records for any service or good relating to any Digital Device or Account, including those for cellular telephone, cable, Internet and satellite services, as requested by the Probation Officer, so that the Probation Officer can verify compliance with these requirements.
11. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the Computer Monitoring Program. The defendant shall pay the cost of the Computer Monitoring Program, in an amount not to exceed $32 per month per device connected to the internet; provided, however, the Probation Officer has the discretion to reduce the amount or not require any payment based on a review of Defendant's financial condition. All computers, computer-related devices, and their peripheral equipment, used by the defendant shall be subject to search and seizure. This shall not apply to items used at the employment's site, which are maintained and monitored by the employer.
12. The defendant shall submit his person, property, house, residence, vehicle, office, or other areas under the defendant's control, to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer or law enforcement officer. Failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation. The defendant shall warn any other occupants that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition. Any search pursuant to this condition will be conducted at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner upon reasonable suspicion that the defendant has violated a condition of his supervision and that the areas to be searched contain evidence of this violation.

The Court authorizes the Probation Office to disclose the Presentence Report to the substance abuse treatment provider to facilitate the defendant's treatment for narcotic addiction or drug dependency. Further redisclosure of the Presentence Report by the treatment provider is prohibited without the consent of the sentencing judge.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $25, which is due immediately.

Determining complex issues of fact related to the cause or amount of the victim's losses would complicate or prolong the sentencing process to a degree that the need to provide restitution to any victim is outweighed by the burden on the sentencing process.

Pursuant to Guideline § 5E1.2(a), all fines are waived as the Court finds that the defendant has established that he is unable to pay and is not likely to become able to pay any fine.

The defendant is advised of his right to appeal.

The Court grants the Government's request to dismiss all remaining counts.

The bond is exonerated.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.

The Court may also accept such notification from the government or the victim, and may, on its own motion or that of a party or the victim, adjust the manner of payment of a fine or restitution-pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3664(k). See also 18 U.S.C. §3572(d)(3) and for probation 18 U.S.C. §3563(a)(7).

Payments shall be applied in the following order:

1. Special assessments pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §3013;
2. Restitution, in this sequence (pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3664(i), all non-federal victims must be paid before the United States is paid):

Records of all other bank accounts, including any business accounts, shall be disclosed to the Probation Officer upon request.

The defendant shall not transfer, sell, give away, or otherwise convey any asset with a fair market value in excess of $500 without approval of the Probation Officer until all financial obligations imposed by the Court have been satisfied in full.
